The meeting was requested by NFPA. Mr. Miller discussed NFPA's position that the Commission should not amend the Flammability Standard for Children's Sleepwear. He asked the Chairman to take NFPA's position into account when considering this matter.

The participants discussed Fire Prevention Week, NFPA's publication of a fire article prepared by Bea Harwood, a former CPSC employee, and NFPA's publicizing the hazard of burning charcoal indoors.

The participants also discussed NFPA's role in developing an installation code for carbon monoxide detectors; and addressing window falls.

Finally, the participants discussed updating the Memorandum of Understanding between NFPA and the Commission.
