Office of the Chairman

MEMORANDUM

DATE: April 6, 1998

TO : Pamela Gilbert
Executive Director

FROM : Chairman Ann Brown awb

SUBJECT: Permission to Use Commission Name and Logo on Commercial Items

The Commission has approved permission for the Consumer Product Safety Commission Recreation Association to use the CPSC name and logo on commercial items for sale subject to the following conditions:

1. Items with the CPSC name and/or logo shall be sold only to CPSC employees. CPSC employees shall not resell any such items except to other CPSC employees.
2. The profit from the sale of such items shall be used solely to defray expenses associated with activities organized for CPSC employees due to their status as such. The Commission grants this permission because it wishes to encourage such activities, which it believes will promote esprit de corps, employee morale, and, consequently, workplace productivity. No individual employee or group of employees may retain for their private use any profits so generated.
3. The CPSC name and logo may not be used in any manner that would imply that CPSC endorses the commercial product on which the CPSC name or logo is placed.
4. Items bearing the CPSC name or logo may be manufactured and sold only after the Executive Director or designee approves their use on a case-by-case basis. In making this determination, the Executive Director or designee shall consult with the Office of General Counsel.
