NON-CPSC ATTENDEES: Members of the Home Fashion Products Association

SUMMARY OF MEETING:

The Home Fashion Products Association (HFPA) Seminar focused on flammability and home textile issues. Mr. Robert Leo of Meeks & Sheppard, Counsel to the HFPA, provided welcoming remarks and an overview of rulemaking proceedings involving the flammability of mattresses, bedding and upholstered furniture.

Mr. Randy Spence of Springs Industries, presented an overview of issues relating to complying with pending and proposed standards. CPSC staff, Allyson Tenney, updated the group on proposed flammability standards, rulemaking procedures, related incident data, current research programs, and emerging issues related to residential mattresses, bedding products (comforters, pillows), and upholstered furniture. Specific emphasis was provided on issues pertaining to retailers and suppliers of home fashion products.

The presentations were followed by a question and answer session, providing an opportunity for attendees from home textile suppliers and retailers to address specific questions.
